

PPE information

Due to the enormous costs incurred by the University, providing all ED students with personal protective equipment during classes in front of the patient - we, as a theoretical Department, ask you to bring your own disposable lab coats for all upcoming classes. Please prepare an appropriate outfit for microbiology classes in advance.