

Security Regulations

Department and Clinic of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care

1. During the first classes, the teacher conducts training in the field of health and safety of studies.
2. During the classes, the teacher conducting the exercises with the given group is responsible for the safety of students.
3. Before starting the course, the teacher is obliged to check if the room in which the classes are to be conducted is safe. Classes may not be conducted in rooms that do not meet safety standards.
4. Before starting practical classes, students are required to change into yours protective clothing (the T-shirt and trousers), shoes included. Only short-sleeved clothing revealing the forearm is allowed. Before the start of the class, you should remove all decorations from your hands (rings, rings, watches).
5. In the event of a threat to life and health, immediately help victims, warn others, notify the teacher and, if possible, leave the place of danger.
6. The Head of the Clinic, the Director of the Hospital and the Health and Safety Inspector should be notified of any acciden.