

EUGLOH Career Network Staff Week

Preliminary Programme

The EUGLOH Career Network was established within the European University Alliance for Global Health to enhance career services and promote employability across partner institutions. It aims to create a collaborative framework for career professionals to share knowledge, develop innovative strategies, and support student and graduate employability. The Career Network Staff Week will be crucial for developing a common strategy and actionable plan to better prepare the next generation of professionals for the global job market.

Virtual Component

Virtual Workshop No. 1: What do we want from the EUGLOH Career Network”

Date: 30th October 2024

Time: 3pm – 5pm CET

Description: Discussion about what is expected from the Career Network through breakout rooms and reflective exercises to gather insights, expectations, and ideas from participants about the desired features, services, and functionalities of the EUGLOH Career Network. The framework from the EUGLOH Proposal will serve as a basis for this workshop.

Virtual Workshop No. 2 - Getting inspired from the experience of other Alliances and Q&A

Date: 6th November 2024

Time: 3pm – 5pm CET

Description: A round table where representatives from other European Alliances present their work on employability and career issues. The session will highlight the importance of these topics within alliances, providing inspiration and inputs for the working group.
