

DIDACTIC STATUTE
for students of all faculties
for the academic year 2024/2025
Department of Medical Law
Department of Forensic Medicine
Wrocław Medical University

1. The obligatory subject Medical law for 5th-year students of English and Polish Divisions according to the course syllabus and the study plan approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine includes:
 - lectures – 20h,
 - seminars – 10h.
2. The course syllabus, which is available on the Department's information board and at the Department's website under the Didactics tab, contains the aims and educational results of the course as well as the subject matter of the classes and the list of literature.
3. Persons who are on the list of students approved by the appropriate Dean's Office of the Wrocław Medical University shall participate in obligatory classes.
4. According to the study regulations of Wrocław Medical University - students' attendance at seminars and lectures is obligatory.
5. Classes in which a student has been absent should be excused and made up by arrangement with the person who is teaching the subject. All absences must be made up, including Rector's days and Dean's hours.
6. The students can make up the missed seminars with other groups, or eventually on other dates than the scheduled (or in other form) only in consultation with the teaching assistant, mgr Dominika Kocowska-Dzik, e-mail: dominika.kocowska-dzik@umw.edu.pl
7. Once the student has made up a class, they must immediately present the appropriate certificate to the Department's Office.
8. The change of the training group is possible, with the consent of the Head of the Department of Forensic Medicine, after submitting an application in the secretary's office (an e-mail form is also acceptable). In addition to a justification, the application must include the student's full name, group, and index number, as well as the group the student would like to join.
9. The credit for the seminars is conditional on attendance at classes following the study regulations, active participation in them, and passing the test in written form. The test will take place during the last class of each seminar group. The test will consist of 10 single-choice questions (5 possible answers, correct answer = 1 point, incorrect answer = 0 points) covering the topics of the seminars. A total maximum of 10 points can be earned. Pass mark: 6 points. Duration of test: 15 minutes.

Grading scale of the test for credit for the seminars:

Number of points	Grade
0-5	insufficient (2,0)
6	sufficient (3,0)
7	fairly good (3,5)
8	good (4,0)
9	above good (4,5)
10	very good (5,0)

Grades will be available in the online protocol no longer than 5 days after the test.

10. The student must obtain a positive grade from the exam in the winter semester of the academic year in order to pass the course in Medical Law.
11. To take an exam, students must receive a passing grade in the seminars.
12. The basic form of assessment of the course Medical Law is a test consisting of closed, single-choice questions (24 questions, 5 possible answers, correct answer = 1 point, incorrect answer = 0 points). A total maximum of 24 points can be earned. Pass mark = 14 points. Students will have 25 minutes to complete the test.

Grading scale for the exam:

Number of points	Grade
0-13	insufficient (2,0)
14-16	sufficient (3,0)
17-18	fairly good (3,5)
19-20	good (4,0)
21-22	above good (4,5)
23-24	very good (5,0)

13. The results of the test examination will be published on the Department's information board and sent via email to the supervisor and the senior of the year no later than 5 days after the exam.
14. Test examinations will be kept in the teaching secretary's office of the Department for a period of 24 months. Students have the right to inspect them for a period of 2 weeks after the results are announced. Viewing the work at a later date is possible by arrangement with the examiner or the person teaching the subject.
