Enrollment for the Practical Clinical Teaching course (chosen specialty) will be conducted via the Virtual University, in the same way as enrollment for optional courses. Enrollment will open on 25.02.2026 at 6:00 a.m. The attachment contains a list of available specialties and the number of groups offered. Students who do not enroll by 27.02.2026 will be assigned to a group by the Vice-Dean for English Studies.

If you have not yet collected your Practical Training Booklet, please do so as soon as possible. Please ensure that it is completed on a regular basis and submitted to the ED Office at the end of your studies, as graduation is not possible without a completed booklet.

NOTE:

If the minimum number of students required for a group (6 students) is not reached, the group will be closed and students will be required to choose another specialty.
