

First sitting of the final exam in Clinical Microbiology for students on sick leave

The exam for students who have submitted a sick leave certificate in accordance with the study regulations will take place on February 13 at 12:30 – 13.50 in the Microbiology Lecture Hall.

We would like also to remind you that students who were ill during the first exam term will be allowed to take the exam on February 13 only if they present a reactivation card signed by the Dean.
