

DIDACTIC STATUTE
for students of all faculties
for the academic year 2026/2027
Department of Medical Law
Department of Forensic Medicine
Wrocław Medical University

1. The obligatory subject Medical Law for 5th-year students of the Faculty of Medicine (WL), in accordance with the course syllabus and the study plan approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, includes:
 - lectures – 20 hours,
 - seminars – 10 hours.
2. The obligatory subject Medical Law for 5th-year students of the Faculty of Medicine (WL) English Division, in accordance with the course syllabus and the study plan approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine – English Division, includes:
 - lectures – 20 hours,
 - seminars – 10 hours.
3. The optional obligatory course Jurisdiction and Medical Law for 5th-year students of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry (WLS), in accordance with the course syllabus and the study plan approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, includes:
 - seminars – 15 hours.
4. The optional obligatory course Jurisdiction and Medical Law for 5th-year students of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry (WLS) English Division, in accordance with the course syllabus and the study plan approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry – English Division, includes:
 - seminars – 15 hours.
5. The course syllabuses, which are available on the University's website, contain the aims and educational results of the courses as well as the subject matter of the classes and the list of literature.
6. Students whose names appear on the list approved by the appropriate Dean's Office of the Wrocław Medical University shall participate in obligatory classes.
7. According to the study regulations of Wrocław Medical University, students' attendance at seminars and lectures is obligatory.
8. Absences from classes must be excused and the missed classes must be made up by arrangement with the person teaching the subject. All absences must be made up, including Rector's days and Dean's hours.
9. Missed seminars may be made up at a time other than that scheduled for the student's group, subject to prior arrangement with the teachers. Contact persons for the seminars:
 - a) mgr Dominika Kocowska-Dzik mail: dominika.kocowska-dzik@umw.edu.pl tel. 71 784 17 36;
 - b) dr Jędrzej Siuta
mail: jedrzej.siuta@umw.edu.pl tel. 71 784 14 61.
10. Before making up a missed class, the student shall collect the appropriate form from the teaching secretary's office of the Department. Once the student has made up the class, they must immediately present the appropriate certificate to the above-mentioned office.
11. A change of the training group is possible with the consent of the Acting Head of the Department of Medical Law, after submitting an application to the secretary's office (an e-mail form is also acceptable). In addition to a justification, the application must include the student's full name, group, and index number, as well as the group the student would like to join.

- 12. The credit for the seminars is conditional on attendance at classes following the study regulations, active participation in them, and passing the test in written form. The test will take place during the last class of each seminar group. A student may take the test provided that they have attended all seminars. The test will consist of 10 single-choice questions (5 possible answers, correct answer = 1 point, incorrect answer = 0 points) covering the topics of the seminars. A total maximum of 10 points can be earned. Pass mark: 6 points. Duration of test: 10 minutes.

Grading scale of the test for credit for the seminars:

Number of points	Grade
0-5	insufficient (2,0)
6	sufficient (3,0)
7	fairly good (3,5)
8	good (4,0)
9	above good (4,5)
10	very good (5,0)

- 13. An essential requirement for passing the courses Medical Law (Polish Division) and Medical Law (English Division) is obtaining a positive grade on the exam in the winter semester of the academic year.
- 14. An essential requirement for taking the exam is obtaining a pass for the seminar classes.
- 15. The primary form of passing the course is a written exam consisting of two parts:
- a. descriptive section – 3 open questions, worth a maximum of 7 points in total;
 - b. test section – 18 single-choice questions (MCQs), each containing 1 correct answer and 4 distractors. Each correct answer is awarded 1 point.
- The maximum number of points obtainable is 25. The final grade is assigned in accordance with the grading scale specified in the Study Regulations.
- 16. The student has the right to raise an objection regarding the form and content of an exam question in accordance with the Study Regulations.
- 17. Exam results are published in the Virtual University IT system within the timeframe specified in the Study Regulations.
- 18. Completed examination papers will be kept in the teaching secretary's office of the Department for a period of 24 months. Students have the right to inspect them for a period of 2 weeks after the results are announced. Inspection of an examination paper at a later date is possible by arrangement with the examiner or the person teaching the subject.
- 19. The teaching assistant of the Department of Medical Law is Dr Agata Thannhäuser (room No. 33, Department of Forensic Medicine – 3rd floor), tel. 071 784 14 72; office hours – Tuesdays, 14:00–15:00, and by e-mail: agata.thannhauser@umw.edu.pl.
- 20. A course dedicated to the subject Medical Law has been created on the PLUM platform, where lecture materials and additional teaching materials will be made available for use during the course.
- 21. Information on the dates of classes of obligatory and optional subjects conducted by the Department is available on the information board in the main building of the Department and at the following website:
<https://www.umw.edu.pl/pl/jednostki/katedra-medycyny-sadowej>

- 22. All information regarding the course of study and classes taught by the Department and the Division of Medical Law may be obtained from the teaching assistant.
- 23. Matters not covered by these regulations are governed by the Study Regulations of the Wrocław Medical University, which constitute an Annex to Resolution No. 2890 of the Senate of Wrocław Medical University dated April 22, 2026, on the approval of the Study Regulations of Wrocław Medical University, effective from the 2026/2027 academic year.

Acting Head

Department of Medical Law

Dr Agata Thannhäuser, MD, PhD, Master of Law